1 Contact details

Creditor.	C. Hoare & Co.
Address.	37 Fleet Street London EC4P 4DQ

2 Key features of the credit product

The type of credit.	Credit card.
The total amount of credit. This means the amount of credit to be provided under the proposed credit Agreement or the credit limit.	Your credit limit will be determined by the Bank from time to time and notified to you.
How and when credit would be provided.	You may take the credit by using the card for purchases.
The duration of the credit Agreement.	The Agreement has no fixed duration or minimum duration.
Repayments.	Your monthly statements will show a minimum monthly payment amount and you must make a payment for at least that amount each month on or before the date specified for payment. The minimum payment is the greater of 5% of the amount shown as outstanding on your monthly statement or £5 (or the full amount if less than £5).
Your repayments will pay off what you owe in the following order.	Interest first and then all other amounts on your credit card account.
The total amount you will have to pay.	£11,431 From 1st September 2025, this illustrative figure will be £1,299.72. Please see the box below for further details.
This means the amount you have borrowed plus interest and other costs.	The total amount payable is an illustrative figure only. It is calculated based on the assumption that you spend £10,000 on purchases at the beginning of the Agreement and then repay it by 12 equal monthly instalments with interest being charged during that period at the interest rate. From 1st September, the illustrative figure will be changing. The calculation will be based on the assumption that you spend £1,200 on purchases at the beginning of the Agreement, repaid in 12 equal monthly instalments with interest charged at the interest rate. In addition, the monthly charge for maintaining your account will no longer be included in the calculation of the total amount payable. No account has been taken of any variation which may occur under the Agreement of the interest rate or charges.

3 Costs of the credit

The rates of interest which apply to the credit Agreement.	15% per year. This rate will apply until varied. The Bank may vary the interest rate for any of the following reasons: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - to reflect a change which has occurred or which the Bank reasonably expects to occur in the cost to the Bank of providing credit card services; - to reflect any change in the law or a decision by an Ombudsman or alteration in the regulatory system affecting banks; - to satisfy any requirement of Visa or any other payment system through which the Bank provides services to you under this Agreement; - for any other valid reason applying at the date the change is made. The Bank will inform you of any change in the interest rate in writing. The change will take effect 60 days after the date of the advice. You have 60 days to tell us you want to close your account, and you'll be able to pay off your balance at your current rate within a reasonable time.
Annual Percentage Rate of Charge (APR). This is the total cost expressed as an annual percentage of the total amount of credit.	28.8% APR (variable). From 1st September 2025, the APR will be 16.1% (variable). Please see the box below for further details.
The APR is there to help you compare different offers.	The APR has been calculated based on the assumption that you spend £10,000 on purchases at the beginning of the Agreement and then repay it by 12 equal monthly instalments with interest being charged during that period at the interest rate. From 1st September 2025, the calculation of the APR will change. The APR calculation will be based on an assumption that you spend £1,200 on purchases at the beginning of the Agreement, repaid in 12 equal monthly instalments, with interest charged at the interest rate. In addition, monthly bank charges applicable to your current account will no longer be included in the APR calculation. In calculating the APR, no account has been taken of any variation which may occur under the Agreement of the interest rate or charges.
In order to obtain the credit or to obtain it on the terms and conditions marketed, you must take out: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - an insurance policy securing the credit, or - another ancillary service contract. If we do not know the costs of these services they are not included in the APR.	To obtain the credit you must hold a current account with the Bank.

Related costs
Any other costs deriving from the credit Agreement.	If the card is used to make a purchase or a cash withdrawal in a foreign currency, the Bank will apply an international handling charge equivalent to 2.5% of the cost of the purchase or the amount withdrawn.
Conditions under which the above charges can be changed.	The Bank may vary charges to reflect the reasonable cost to the Bank of performing the act or service in respect of which the charge is made. If the charge is increased, the Bank will give you written notice of the change at least 30 days before it takes effect.
Costs in the case of late payments.	You will be charged interest both before and after a court judgment, at the rate of 15% per year from the date payment falls due until payment is made.
Consequences of missing payments.	Missing payments could have severe consequences, including legal proceedings which may include a claim to repossess your house. Missing payments could also make obtaining credit more difficult.

4 Other important legal aspects

Right of Withdrawal.	You have the right to withdraw from the credit Agreement (without giving any reason). Your right of withdrawal will start on the day after you are informed in writing under section 61A of the Consumer Credit Act 1974 that the credit Agreement has been executed, or the Bank notifies you of your credit limit (whichever is later) and will end 13 days after that day.
Early repayment.	You have the right to repay the credit early at any time in full or partially.
Consultation with a Credit Reference Agency.	If the Bank decides not to proceed with a prospective regulated consumer credit Agreement on the basis of information from a credit reference agency the Bank must, when informing you of the decision, inform you that it has been reached on the basis of information from a credit reference agency and the particulars of that agency.
Right to a draft credit Agreement.	You have the right, upon request, to obtain a copy of the draft credit Agreement free of charge, unless the Bank is unwilling at the time of the request to proceed to the conclusion of the credit card Agreement.
The period of time during which the creditor is bound by the pre-contractual information.	This information sets out the terms and conditions for a credit Agreement that the Bank could offer you today. The Bank cannot guarantee that the terms and conditions would be exactly the same as set out in this document if you applied for a credit card on a different date.
